Ben's message is one of hope, courage, and inspiration. He shares his journey about what happened after he was severely mangled in a car accident - given only a 5% chance to survive - a face and body crushed beyond recognition. He was 16 years old with the promise of being a basketball star. In his deathened state, he was given a glimpse of heaven which he freely communicates to his audience. Young and old can benefit from hearing about his miraculous experience. Come, listen, and discover why 50,000 radio listeners listed him as one of the most amazing, inspirational, and impactful persons in the world in 2018.
